

Announcing an Exciting New Partnership! Bridges and Keys to Literacy

About Keys to Literacy

Our Mission:

"Through better training of educators, our goal is to improve literacy skills so students can become more literate, fulfilled and productive members of society."

"For over 30 years I have dedicated myself to the field of adolescent literacy by teaching students and training teachers. The name of my company, Keys to Literacy, highlights the fundamental nature of this mission – to prepare teachers in grades 4 through 12 to teach reading comprehension skills through instruction that is embedded in content. Our professional development for reading comprehension gives teachers the keys to unlock literacy for their students. We strive to make educators aware of successful, research-based instructional practices, and how to apply that knowledge to their teaching."

—Joan Sedita, Founding Partner

Bridges and Keys to Literacy have worked together for many years. We have co-lead four Literacy and Assistive Technology Seminars in Ontario, British Columbia and Nova Scotia. Our partnership has always been successful in that good strategies and good assistive technology lead to powerful reading outcomes for even our most struggling students.

Recently, this partnership has been formalized and Bridges is now the exclusive provider of Keys to Literacy Professional Development in Canada.

Come to our launch and hear about this exciting new offering. We look forward to working with you to improve reading in your class, school and district!
